The filing fees schedule is based on the amount in dispute with a minimum of $100 and a maximum of $7,500, as follows:

- If the amount in dispute is less than $5,000, the fee is $100 plus 5% of the disputed amount
- If the amount in dispute is $5,000 or more and less than $10,000, the fee is $100 plus 6% of the disputed amount
- If the amount in dispute is $10,000 or more, the fee is $100 plus 7%, with a maximum filing fee of $7,500.

17. If the fee dispute is for $25,000 or less, it is heard by one (1) arbitrator. If it is for more than $25,000, it is heard by three arbitrators. If all parties agree, you can have the dispute heard by one arbitrator even if the dispute is for more than $25,000. Select only one.

- The dispute is for $25,000 or less, or
- The dispute is for more than $25,000 and you agree to one arbitrator, or
- The dispute is for more than $25,000 and you request three arbitrators

18. Unless both parties agree in writing to BINDING ARBITRATION after the fee dispute arises, this arbitration is NONBINDING. Nonbinding arbitration means that if either party is unhappy with the award, either party has the right to ask for a trial in a civil court. Requesting a trial after arbitration will require filing documents with the appropriate court within 30 days from the date the award is mailed, even if damages are not sought from the other party. Unless a party requests a trial after arbitration within 30 days, the award automatically becomes final and binding.

If both parties agree in writing to make the arbitration BINDING, a new trial may not be requested and the award will immediately become final and binding on both parties with limited rights to challenge the award in civil court.

Do you agree to BINDING arbitration? Yes No

19. If you are the client and the attorney represented you in a civil matter, you are entitled to choose an arbitrator who practices civil law. If your attorney represented you in a criminal matter, you are entitled to choose an arbitrator who practices criminal law. Please indicate your choice below.

- I want an attorney who practices civil law as an arbitrator.
